In Memoriam

NOBLE MALOTT

(1879-1959)

Noble Malott, for more than a half century, figured prominently in the public eye, and each new task that he adopted he attacked with vigor and determination.

In 1904, he was elected Guthrie Township trustee. He served in that capacity again in 1914. He helped establish Tunnelton High School in 1910 while Ralph N. Tirey was county school superintendent. He recognized the school as "his school" and took much pride and interest in the school functions.

Noble Malott served as township trustee, state legislator, county councilman, general store proprietor, postmaster, farmer, and bailiff of Lawrence County Circuit Court.

Noble Malott was a man who, because he lived here, made Tunnelton and Lawrence County a better place in which to live.

Men are born to be free and independent. We live in a universe that seems bent upon the creation of rational free beings, and in this creation we have an essential part to play. Should we as a nation fail, we shall all suffer. The outcome of the struggle between the forces of democracy and those of special privilege is in doubt. Whatever the outcome, the individual cannot attain his highest good without wholeheartedly working for a worthy ideal, and no ideal is worthy of man that does not include a genuine concern for the welfare of mankind.

The citizen who enjoys the freedom achieved by his ancestors and does not strive to preserve and to pass it on to future generations is guilty of a more serious breach of his moral obligations.

Senior Class History

In the year 1948-49, we were a group of eager-faced children who had left our mothers to become first graders with Mrs. Zula Brooking as our teacher. The pupils were: Jack Dalton, Richard Flinn, Lucille Elmore, Janet Speer, Ruth Chase, David Payton, Donnie Brown, Jerry Brubaker, Lois Glover, Ronald Gerkin, Ronald Terry, Oneida Staggs, Ronald Wilkerson, Max Wright, Johnny Scott, Gary Jean, Jackie Jean, Ronald Green, Shirley Hoopingarner, and Hazel Hutchinson.

Our teachers through the next five years were Mrs. Elizabeth Zenor, second grade; Mrs. Ellen Hobson, third grade; Mrs. Ellen Hobson, fourth grade; Mrs. Fannie Corey, fifth grade; Mrs. Rosalie Underwood, sixth grade. Mrs. Imogene Skeen was our sponsor in the seventh grade, and Mr. Robert Rowe was the eighth grade sponsor.

In 1956-57 we were Freshies. Freshmen for the year were: Priscilla Beavers, Ruth Beavers, Ruth Chase, Lucille Elmore, Mary McKeaigg, Helen Reed, Mary Sears, Linda Shirley, Janet Speer, Oneida Staggs, Karen Thompson, Jack Dalton, Richard Flinn, Dewey Mills, David Payton, Robert Stabler, Dean Sears, Amber Bevers, and Brenda Staggs. Class officers for the year were President, Dewey Mills; Vice President, Jack Dalton; Secretary-Treasurer, Ruth Chase. The class sponsor was Mr. Russel Jackson.

The class officers for our Sophomore year were, President, Amber Bevers; Vice President, Mike Fletcher; Secretary, Richard Flinn; Treasurer, Ruth Beavers. We had a total enrollment of 22. Our class sponsor was Miss Carolyn Duncan.

The Juniors found the year 1958-59 to be a busy one. There was the problem of selecting a date and theme for the Prom. A class flower and motto was also a difficult task, but we soon had it solved. The prom date was set for May 15, and the theme was "Southern Serenade." Class officers for the year were: President, David Payton; Vice President, Jack Dalton; and Secretary-Treasurer, Ruth Chase. Janet Speer and Lucille Elmore were the Student Council members. The class sponsor was Mr. Carrol Rumble. We had an enrollment of 18.

Finally the year we have been waiting for has arrived. We have all been busy with the "Tunneler," "The Big Chief," and ordering senior pictures and announcements. Officers for the year were: President, Amber Bevers; Vice President, Jack Dalton; Secretary-Treasurer, Mary Sears; and Student Council, Ruth Beavers. We had a total enrollment of an unlucky 13 but have considered ourselves lucky. Our sponsor was Mr. Erle Oldridge. Two important dates for the year were Baccalaureate--May 15, and the Commencement--May 20.
